

Grade 11 English- Emergency Lesson Plans: In the event of an emergency school closing for an extended period, you must complete the following assignments:

1. Utilizing newspapers, magazines or on-line sources, locate three (3) theater, movie, or music reviews. You may select any combination of reviews; they do not have to be on the same topic/
2. Read and then summarize EACH review using only about 10% of the number of words in the original piece. Each summary should include the title of the piece, where and when it is being performed or shown and the key points expressed by the critic.
3. Watch a full-length feature movie related to the theme of social justice and write a review for the movie using similar tone and style of those you have read. Your review should include the movie title and names of featured actors (s) and be approximately one page typed double-spaced).
4. Write a personal journal entry of 200 - 250 words reflecting on the specific issue of social justice raised in the movie. Some thoughts to get you started: Has the movie changed your attitude toward this situation? If so, in what way? What have you learned about the issue, etc? How should we as a society address this challenge? Why haven't we resolved the issue? What gets in the way?

Assignments will be collected by your English teacher.